5. Reservation Policy

Customers can make reservations up to 30 days in advance.

A customer must provide:

- Reservation date
- Reservation time
- Number of guests
- Contact information
- Optional seating preference

The reservation system checks table availability before confirming a reservation.

A table is normally held for 15 minutes after the reservation time.

If the customer does not arrive within the holding period, the restaurant may release the table.

Groups larger than 8 guests should contact the restaurant directly because large groups may require special seating arrangements.

---

6. Cancellation Policy

Customers can cancel reservations without a cancellation charge up to 2 hours before the reservation time.

Reservations cancelled less than 2 hours before the reservation time may be subject to restaurant policies.

Repeated no-shows may result in restrictions on future reservations.

7. Walk-In Policy

The Learning Bistro accepts walk-in customers.

Walk-in seating depends on current table availability.

During busy periods, customers may be asked to wait until a table becomes available.

A reservation is recommended for Friday evenings, Saturdays, and special occasions.

8. Private Dining

The restaurant provides private dining areas for small groups.

Private dining can be requested for:

- Family gatherings
- Business meetings
- Birthday celebrations
- Small celebrations
- Special dinners

Private dining availability depends on the date, time, and number of guests.

Customers should contact the restaurant in advance for private dining arrangements.

---

9. Dietary Requirements

The restaurant provides vegetarian options throughout the menu.

Selected dishes can be modified to meet vegan requirements.

Jain-friendly preparation is available for selected dishes when requested in advance.

Customers with allergies should inform restaurant staff before ordering.

The restaurant handles multiple ingredients in the same kitchen, so cross-contact with allergens may occur.

---
